Creative Writing Program
Program Outcomes

• CRWR Minor
  o Proficiency in close reading.
  o Development of vocabularies for assessing literature, with an emphasis on craft.
  o Application of the formal elements of craft in either genre.
  o Familiarity with fundamental concepts, forms, modes, and traditions in literary fiction and/or poetry.

• CRWR MFA
  o Sustained literary work of professional quality in poetry or fiction, demonstrating technical confidence, mature inquiry into literary form, and a well-developed individual voice and aesthetic.
  o The ability to analyze literature and articulate craft-based responses with acuity and depth regarding form and language, literary and cultural contexts, predecessors, genres, and historical traditions.
  o The ability to teach introductory undergraduate courses in creative writing.