Are you applying for the Graduate School Dissertation Fellowships?

Yes

No

Note: Graduate students applying for Dissertation Fellowships are advised to review application procedures via the Graduate School's website: <http://gradschool.uoregon.edu/funding-awards> as requirements are not identical to the Department of Human Physiology's Graduate Scholarships/Funding <https://physiology.uoregon.edu/graduate/scholarships/>. Applications to for the Dissertation Fellowships are evaluated by the Human Physiology Awards and Scholarship committee, but applying for the departmental scholarships does not automatically mean you are applying for the Graduate School Fellowships and Awards. If you are applying for the Dissertation Fellowship, you must submit a 1500-word Research Prospectus to be considered. See [https://gradschool.uoregon.edu/node/2334#overlay-context=node/2334] for more information.

Personal Statement (4500 character maximum. Please insert your personal statement in the text box below. Refer to the following links for directions regarding personal statement development: undergraduates- <https://physiology.uoregon.edu/undergraduate/scholarships/> ; graduates- <https://physiology.uoregon.edu/graduate/scholarships/>):

Signed Certification and Authorization: I certify that I have provided complete and accurate statements on this application. To the best of my knowledge, all accompanying documents are authentic, unaltered records that pertain to me. I authorize the University of Oregon to furnish copies of my academic record, this application, faculty recommendation forms, a statement of my financial need, when appropriate, to the College of Arts and Sciences Scholarship Committee for review in considering my application for any scholarship for which I may be eligible. I hereby give approval for the University of Oregon to issue a news release if I am awarded a scholarship, listing my name, hometown, and the name and amount of the scholarship.

*Note: For students receiving Federal financial aid, acceptance of this award may affect your aid amount. For specific details, please contact HPHY office manager or the UO Student Financial Aid office.

To be considered, all applicants are required to submit items 1-3 as ONE (1) pdf in the order listed below.

1. Application form and personal statement (as inserted above).
2. Copy of current professional resume or curriculum vitae.
3. Copy of transcript (undergraduate or graduate work respective of applicant's academic status). This can be an unofficial transcript (official transcripts are preferred), but MUST contain your name and student number and MUST be a pdf. Both unofficial and official transcripts can be obtained from Duckweb via the Student Menu.
4. Confidential Letters of Recommendation- provided directly to the Awards and Scholarship Committee by the reference provider. Referrers must include their relationship to the applicant.

Attached the pdf file and email it to hphyscholarships@uoregon.edu. The name of the pdf file should be formatted as "LastName, FirstName". Incomplete applications, documents sent as separate files or in the wrong order will not be considered.

Submit one application only for Department of Human Physiology scholarships.

All scholarship application materials are due February 1st by 4pm at: hphyscholarships@uoregon.edu.

Due dates that fall on weekends will be extended to the following Monday.

For additional information and requirements, please visit the HPHY Website: <http://physiology.uoregon.edu>.
