Computer and Information Science Department Honors Program Application

Program Description: The CIS Department Honors Program is a distinction granted to undergraduate students who exhibit academic excellence, a commitment to learning, and who complete a scholarly thesis paper on a topic in the field of computer science.

Application Requirements:

- 3.5 grade point average in Computer and Information Science major
- UO cumulative grade point average of 3.5
- Have already completed CIS 313, 314, 315 and 330
- Take 1-4 credits in Thesis (CIS 403) under the supervision of a faculty member

Name: _____ Student ID:_____

Email Address:_____ Phone: _____

Proposed Topic:_____

_____

Proposed Faculty Supervisor:_____

Expected date of graduation:_____

Student Signature:_____Date:_____

[Internal use only]

UEC Notes:

Computer and Information Science Department 120 Deschutes Hall 541-346-4408