Introduction to the Global Studies Major Application

GLOBAL STUDIES MAJOR APPLICATION

APPLICATION DEADLINE

The Fall 2022 application is due by Tuesday, October 18, 2022, at 11:59 p.m.

Incomplete applications will not be considered. Please ensure that all of the major application materials are submitted before the deadline.

APPLICATION ELIGIBILITY REQUIREMENTS

All applicants must:

- 1. Declare the pre-major in Global Studies (click here to "add" the pre-major).
- 2. Complete the Global Studies Pre-Major Requirements (either the "Old" Pre-Major Requirements).
- 3. Maintain a cumulative (overall) UO GPA of 3.0 or above, or obtain a 3.0 or higher GPA for three (3) consecutive terms prior to application. Under special circumstances, the Director of Undergraduate Studies may grant an exception to this requirement.

APPLICATION STEPS

Step 1: Meet with a Global Connections Advisor and put together a Global Studies Major Planner for your application file. Please click here to see our "Advising" page for information on how to schedule an appointment with a Global Connections Advisor.

Step 2: Connect with a Global Studies Faculty Mentor. Please click here to see the "Faculty Mentors" page of our website for more details regarding the required Faculty Confirmation form.

Step 3: Complete the online application, inclusive of the following:

- Fill out the Student Applicant Profile.
- Upload your unofficial UO transcript (downloaded from Duckweb)
- Upload three 250-400 word essays in response to the following prompts:
 - 1. How did you become interested in global and intercultural issues? How would you describe the quality of that interest? This can be an autobiographical statement if you wish.
 - 2. What are your current thoughts about a future vocation or profession?

This can be called a "career goals" statement. Knowing these can change, we're looking to learn more about your current work interests and how these are related to your academic program.

- 3. How will you fulfill the requirements for the major? Give a description of the "integrating principle" or element that ties your program together. Please address the following:
 - What is your Geographic Focus area? How will you fulfill the thirdyear language requirement? Will your language be related to your Geographic Focus? Why or why not? (International students should reflect on completing their AEIS & Written English requirements)
 - What is your professional concentration and who is your preferred Faculty Mentor that will help you navigate this professional concentration?
 - How do your choices for geographic and professional foci combine to meet your academic goals in Global Studies?

APPLICATION REVIEW

The Global Studies Major Admissions Committee will review your completed application, and you will be notified of the committee's decision by email to your UO email account by the end of Week 6 (11/04/2022). At the time of notification of your acceptance into the program, you will be notified of a mandatory orientation meeting for all new majors.

If you have any questions or concerns about the application process, please contact the OCIAS Undergraduate Support Team at ociasundergrad@uoregon.edu .

European Studies Minor

Latin American Studies Minor

Middle East & North Africa Studies Minor

Russian, East European & Eurasian Studies Minor

Upon acceptance into the Global Studies major, you have the option to declare a Bachelor of Arts or a Bachelor of Science. Which would you like to declare?

The Global Studies department does not prefer one over the other; please review the difference between the two options: https://registrar.uoregon.edu/current-students/bachelors-degree

NOTE: If you plan on double majoring and having both a BA and a BS you must declare your intent to complete concurrent degrees. Learn more: https://registrar.uoregon.edu/current-students /concurrent-degrees

Bachelor of the Arts

(requires second-language proficiency already required by the major)

Bachelor of Science

(requires additional math courses in your general requirements)

"New" Major Applicants - Global Studies Pre-Major Requirements

"New" Major - Global Studies Pre-Major Requirements

The Global Studies Pre-Major requirements must be completed before you apply to the major. Students may be enrolled in up to one of the checklist required courses the term that they are applying to the major.

You must review the Pre-Major requirements and complete your major planner with a Global Connections Advisor* in Tykeson Hall. Please click here to see our "Advising" page for information on how to schedule an appointment with a Global Connections Advisor.

The two Global Studies Gateway Courses are GLBL 101, "Introduction to International Studies" and GLBL 102, "Foundations for Intercultural Competence."

One course from the Gateway Courses must be completed before you apply to the "New" Global Studies major.

Please select which Gateway Courses you have completed.

Who approved your Global Studies Major Planner?
Please note the GLBL department has identified the individuals who can approve your checklist. If you have "Other," please make sure to confirm with the GLBL Undergraduate Support Team at ociasundergrad@uoreg to confirm that this is an appropriate individual.
Please briefly describe your understanding of what you still have to complete for the major requirements ((i.e. how many Block A, Block B and Block C will you still have? Have you completed your language or intercultural experience?)
Upload UO Unofficial Transcripts

Upload a PDF of your Unofficial Transcript

- 1. Log in to duckweb.uoregon.edu
- 2. Select Student Menu > Grades & Transcripts Menu
- 3. Select "Unofficial Transcripts" and then select "Undergraduate" from the drop-down list
- 4. Click "Display Transcript"
- 5. Download/Print as a PDF

How did you become interested in global and intercultural issues? How would you describe the	e quality of that interest? This can be an autobiographical statement if you wish. (Maximum 2,500 characters)
What are your current thoughts about a future vocation or profession? This can be called a "care goals" statement. We do not wish to force you into a premature declaration, but want to know about you work interests and how these are related to your academic program. (Maximum 2,500 characters)	וג

How will you fulfill the requirements of the major? Give a description of the "integrating principle" or element that ties your program together. Please address the following:

• What is your specific geographic area of study and how will you fulfill the third-year language
