

Master's Electives

The following is a list of Master's electives offered in recent years. For current course offerings see the class schedule.

Behavioral and Experimental Economics
Computational Economics
Crime Economics
Economic Growth and Development
Economic Problems of Pacific Northwest Cities
Economics of Big Data
Economy of the Pacific Northwest
Environmental Economics
Forecasting
Games and Decisions
Globalization
Growth and Development
Health Economics
History of Economic Thought
International Finance
International Trade
Labor Economics
Monetary Policy
Monetary Theory
Natural Resource Economics
Political Economy
Public Economics
Taxation
Theory of Industrial Organization
Transportation
Urban and Regional